Aim

The Journals of Zhejiang University-SCIENCE (A/B/C) are edited by the international board of distinguished Chinese and foreign scientists, and are aimed to present the latest developments and achievements in scientific research in China and overseas to the world's scientific circles, especially to stimulate and promote academic exchange between Chinese and foreign scientists everywhere.

Scope

JZUS-B focuses on Biomedicine, Biochemistry & Biotechnology, provides the forum for high-quality research communications, addresses all aspects of original experimental information based on theory and their applications, and welcomes contributions from all who wish to report on new developments in scientific researches within the scope outlined above.

Manuscript Preparation

Authors are encouraged to submit their manuscripts via online submission at <http://www.editorialmanager.com/zusb> or link via <http://www.zju.edu.cn/jzus>. The electronic manuscript should be prepared to accord with the following:

Title and by-line: Name, affiliation (institution) of the author(s), city, zip code, country, and email address of the author(s) should be given.

Abstract: About 150–250 words without mathematical or chemical equations or citations should outline the objective, method, main results, and conclusions.

Key words: Provide 3 to 6 key words or phrases for cross-indexing this article.

Text: The text should contain an Introduction that puts the paper into proper perspective for the reader, and should also contain Methods, Results, Discussion, and Conclusions sections. Each figure, including a, b, c, etc. of each figure, must present the caption.

Acknowledgements: Individuals or units other than authors who were of direct help in the work could be acknowledged by a brief statement following the text.

References: Only essential references (journal article, book, thesis, report, proceedings, etc.) cited in the text (in Author-Year format) can be listed in alphabetical order by author's surname. Personal communications and unpublished data are not acceptable references. All authors in the references should be listed.
