

STYLE

The Journal of Futures Studies is an English-language globally refereed journal published in Taiwan for the global futures community. Due to the transnational nature of the publication, JFS will accept either British or U.S. orthography and conventions consistent with objective article and essay composition (as opposed to business, letter, promotional, etc...) usage. For details concerning this usage, authors are urged to consult The Chicago Manual of Style. Parts of this manual and questions about it may be accessed on-line at: <http://www.press.uchicago.edu/Misc/Chicago/cmosfaq>

Articles must include: title, author's name author's institutional affiliation, abstract, main text, endnotes (as necessary, see below), and optional correspondence information. Essays follow the same format, however, an abstract is not required.

Manuscripts must be submitted in Microsoft Word document format. Paragraphs should be unjustified and spaced without bias. Sentences should be single-spaced after periods.

JFS uses the Endnotes and References style for all notes and citation of sources. The specific rules are as the following:

- 1) Endnotes should be conventionally sequenced.
- 2) References Following Endnotes List authors alphabetically, by surname. Spell out first names of all authors and editors. For authors with more than one work cited, list works earliest to latest. For articles, next give title of article (caps and lower case), name of journal, volume number, and pagination. For books and monographs, give title, followed by publisher.
- 3) For books:
Boulding, Elise and Kenneth Boulding. 1995. The Future: Images and Process. London: Sage Publications.
Masini, Eleonora. 1999. "Rethinking Futures Studies" in Ziauddin Sardar, ed., Rescuing All Our Futures: The Futures of Futures Studies. Twickenham, England: Adamantine Press Pp. 36-48.
Galtung, Johan. 1978. Essays in Peace Research. Vols. 105. Copenhagen: Christian Elgers.
- 4) For Journal articles:
Seo, Yongseok. 2002. "From the 39th Parallel to a Border: Exploring Alternative Futures of Korea." Journal of Futures Studies 6(4): 1-26.
