

Nusantara:

An International Journal of
Humanities and Social Sciences

Editorial Policy

1 Aims and Scope

Nusantara: An International Journal of Humanities and Social Sciences (NIJHSS) is a peer-reviewed, open-access journal principally focusing on Indonesia and Southeast Asia. NIJHSS is based in Taiwan and the wider scope of the journal also includes the larger Austronesian world. NIJHSS publishes high-quality and peer-reviewed research papers in the academic disciplines of humanities and social sciences related to Indonesia, Southeast Asia, and the Austronesian world. NIJHSS's mission is to promote, advance, and facilitate scholarship from both inside and outside the region of Southeast Asia by providing a combination of voices from senior academics to young potential researchers. NIJHSS welcomes submissions from scholars working in various disciplines in the humanities and social sciences as well as interdisciplinary cooperation of researchers.

2 Practical Information

NIJHSS publishes two issues yearly under the direction of Associate Professor Dr. Frank Dhont, Department of History, National Cheng Kung University as Editor-in-Chief and supported by an editorial board made up principally of international scholars related to the International Indonesia Forum (<https://iif.or.id>). NIJHSS is based within the Center for Multi-cultural Studies, National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan (<http://www.cmcs.ncku.edu.tw>).
